

Quarterly Issues Report
WLFI-TV
Fourth Quarter, 2008

Agriculture and Business

The fourth quarter was marked by the international recession, which began 12 months before, in December, 2007. WLFI covered economic forums where local economists explained economic conditions, interviewed local stock brokers and financial experts about stock prices, and reported what local candidates for Congress thought of the economic relief package proposed by President Bush.

The station also tracked layoffs at local corporations including the Vanguard Trailer Manufacturing plant in White County, Fleetwood in Crawfordsville, and Wabash National in Lafayette.

0930-11-00-P-PKG buyer.dv Alyssa: Since the bailout plan failed to pass, congress is looking for other options to help boost the economy. Kristin Crowley spoke with 4th District Congressman Steve Buyer, who voted against the bailout bill and says there are other options that need to be considered.
10/1/200 2:10 & 5:00 A.M. Down Payment Changes 0930-11-00-P-PKG downpay.dv Alyssa: As the economy absorbs the billions of dollars in bad mortgage debts, new legislation goes into effect today that might make it more difficult for first time home buyers to purchase a house. Niccole: Again, that change takes place today.
10/1/200 :25 5:00 A.M. Kokomo Business
Seth: The Kokomo City Council has approved in 160 million dollars tax breaks for Delphi Corporation...hoping that factory upgrades will keep 3-thousand jobs in the city. The council voted unanimously to approve the 10 years of tax abatements for the company.

 1003-6-00-P--PKG Retail-Holi.dv Jeff: Retailers will likely face an uphill battle this holiday season. Some experts project this will be one of the worst Christmas shopping seasons in 15 years.

Crime

Two local crime fighting programs expanded during the fourth quarter of 2008. The Weed and Seed program in Lafayette, which gives ex-felons the opportunity to become more involved in the community, announced plans to help program participants save money. The WeTip program, which allows people to report crimes anonymously, expanded into local school corporations during the fourth quarter. WeTip coordinators said the Tippecanoe County program is among the busiest in the nation.

Efforts to establish a Juvenile Justice Center in Tippecanoe County moved forward during the quarter, with the county purchasing property for the facility, finalizing its design, and appropriating funds for its construction.

Roads and Transportation

Ground was broken on the final leg of the Hoosier Heartland Industrial Corridor during the fourth quarter. The corridor will link Lafayette with Toledo, Ohio, with a four-lane highway. Groundbreaking in Lafayette was for the final segment of the project, from Lafayette to Logansport, Indiana.

After more than a year of construction, a project to widen State Road 26 East between Interstate 65 and County Road 550 East was completed during the fourth quarter.

And drivers received a pleasant surprise during the fourth quarter as gasoline prices dipped below $1.50 per gallon.
